Goshen Historic Track

*W*ater never dampened our spirit and fire never extinguished our resolve to preserve both the history and reality of harness racing here in Goshen.

On August 23rd of last year, a horrific fire destroyed a large part of the historic BOCES Barn. The quaint antique blacksmith shop was reduced to ashes. Thanks to the heroics of track personnel, tenants and volunteer firefighters, not a single individual or horse was injured. As a result of this catastrophe, it was decided not only to rebuild the BOCES Barn, but to upgrade many of the structures of this National Historic Landmark as well.

There are plans in the works to rebuild the BOCES Barn with the intent to serve as a storage facility for many of the Harness Racing Museum's precious artifacts, and also allowing for additional displays for public viewing. Our blacksmith shop will be relocated to the Arden Barn which will also undergo a major renovation.
